Parameters for appointment of Governors

2625. SHRI KARNENDU BHATTACHARJEE:
SHRIMATI HEMA MALINI:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

whether the Supreme Court of India in a recent judgment called upon all national parties that a national consensus is evolved laying down norms and parameters for appointment of Governors in various States;

if so, the details thereof;

Governmentreaction thereto; and whether Government intends to evolve a procedure which may be acceptable to all and if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO.GAVIT): (a) to (d) The Supreme Court of India, in its judgement in the Writ Petition (Civil) No. 257 of 2005— Rameshwar Prasad and Ore. Vs. Unionof India andAnr. with 3 other Writ Petitions referring to the Sarkaria Commission's recommendation regarding the appointment of the Governor has left this aspect to the wisdom of the political parties and their leaders to discuss and debate and arrive at, if possible, a national policy with some common minimum parameters applicable and acceptable to all major political parties.

In the Seventh Meeting of the Inter-State Council held on 16th November, 2001, detailed discussions were already held on the recommendations of the Sarkaria Commission related to the "Role of the Governor", including "appointment of the Governor". The suggestions made by the Sarkaria Commission have been substantially accepted by the Inter-State Council and are already part of the exercise undertaken by the Government while considering the appointment of a Governor of any State.

Review of powers of Governors

2626. SHRI SHANTARAM LAXMAN NAIK: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

whether Government propose to review powers of the Governors;

whether any constitutional amendments are under consideration; and
